

Corner Referee - Manual

Good postures

Wrong postures

After the bout the Corner Referee stands up and hands the scoring form to the Centre Referee bowing for respect.

In case of the "first point" winner the Corner Referee stands up in front of his chair with the red – blue flag in his hand

The Corner Referee may move to have a better view

In case of a scored point the Centre Referee stops the bout. Only after the command "Sung" the Corner Referee indicates the winner by raising red or blue flag